Registration

You can visit our catalog as an unregistered guest and view product information. As a registered visitor, you will benefit from the following features:

- See end user list prices for all products
- Download user manuals and CAD files (if available)
- Add products to your shopping cart and send it as quotation request

For registration, we require your basic contact information as well as a valid e-mail address and a password.

After sending the registration request, you will soon receive a confirmation e-mail. This e-mail contains an activation link. Your account will be activated only after you have clicked the link.

Navigation

■ Product Categories

You can order our standard products on-line in our shop. The selection consists of the main categories “Light Sources”, “Fiber Optic Illumination Systems”, “Industrial LED Illumination”, and “Accessories”. In the main groups, you can further navigate to the desired products or product groups.

■ Product Variants

Here you will see all available variations with part numbers. Registered visitors can add products to their wish list (shopping cart).

■ Technical Specifications

On the detailed product pages, under the tab “Technical Information”, you will find all the available information on the products. Alternatively, you can create a PDF of the technical data and save it locally on your computer. The link for this is always located under the product photo.
